Title: (George) Brown Family fonds

Dates of Creation: [ca. 1800s]-1960

Physical Description: ca. 0.8 cm of textual records, 0.2 cm of photocopied photographs, and 2 maps

Biographical Sketch:

George Brown was an engineer who worked for the Canadian Pacific Railway for 25 years before his untimely death in a railroad accident in 1908 near Lytton. He was married to Edith Alice Thexton in 1894, with whom he had three children (including Selina A.I.). Prior to his death Brown also built the S.S. Riffle, in partnership with Brookfield.

Edith Alice Brown (nee Thexton) was the daughter of W.D. Thexton, of Kamloops. In 1894 she married George Brown, with whom he had three children (including Selina A.I.). She worked as the organist at the Episcopal Church prior to her marriage, and continued in this capacity at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church until 1922 as well as for social occasions.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consists of various records and photocopies of records related to the family of George Brown including baptism certificates, sympathy letters, a water licence, correspondence, and photocopies of a family photograph album.

Custodial History:

Accession 1986.047 was donated to the Kamloops Museum and Archives on July 16, 1986 by Ray Compton.
