Title: Kamloops 1993 Canada Games collection

Dates of Creation: 1993

Physical Description: 13 cm of textual records with intermittent objects

Administrative History:

The Canada Games is an amateur-level sporting event which occurs every two years in Canada, alternating between Summer and Winter Games. The event is organized by the Canada Games Council, with the first Winter Games being held in 1967 in Quebec City as part of Canada's Centennial celebrations. Summer sporting events include track and field, baseball, basketball, beach volleyball, canoe kayak, cycling, diving, fencing, golf, mountain biking, rowing, sailing, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, triathlon, volleyball, and wrestling. Winter sporting events include alpine skiing, archery, artistic gymnastics, badminton, biathlon, cross-country skiing, curling, figure skating, freestyle skiing, ice hockey, judo, ringette, shooting, speed skating, squash, synchronized swimming, table tennis, and wheelchair basketball. Former sporting events include boxing, BMX, box lacross, field hockey, rugby, and water polo.

The Canada Games Council is a non-profit private organization incorporated in 1991, which acts as the major organizer for the Canada Games. The Council is responsible for coordinating efforts between various levels of Government and the local City's host society in terms of organizational planning, ceremonies and protocol, marketing, and sponsorship.

Scope and Content:

Collection consists of materials relating to the 1993 Canada Summer Games which was held in Kamloops, B.C. from August 8 to 23, 1993. Included is a final report from the Kamloops 1993 Canada Games Society, a binder of samples of promotional material and memorabilia, printed promotional materials, media guides for the Canadian Provincial teams, a small sampling of volunteer materials, and an event guestbook.
