Administrative History:

The Kamloops Branch of the Chinese Patriotic Association was a charitable organization which worked to support Chinese war efforts during the Sino-Japanese War (1937-1945). The group worked to assist refugees from the conflict and to raise funds to send to China to aid the war effort, through local activities such as hosting teas, banquets, and film viewings. The group was also involved in greater community events, such as building an archway in front of City Hall for the 1939 Royal Visit to Kamloops, and worked closely with other community organizations, such as the Chinese National League. The group also had a Ladies Auxiliary branch.

Fonds consists of records created by the Kamloops Branch of the Chinese Patriotic Association. Records include blank ledgers and receipt books, and three ledgers containing a registry of branch members, an attendance book, and minutes.

Custodial History:

Fonds was donated to the Kamloops Museum and Archives on April 26, 1979 by the City of Kamloops, after being found in the Commercial Block prior to demolition.
