Title: Canadian Red Cross Society, Kamloops Branch fonds

Dates of Creation: 1914-1945

Physical Description: 25 cm of textual records

Administrative History:

The Canadian Red Cross Society, Kamloops Branch began in 1914 as the Red Cross Guild (also referred to as the Junior Red Cross Auxiliary). It was reorganized in 1920 and became the official Kamloops branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. The aims of the Society were to provide support for Canadian soldiers, and they held fundraisers, social events, and campaigns to raise funds. The Society also held classes in the community to promote medical knowledge, on topics such as home nursing and hygiene, and ran blood drives and blood donor clinics.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consists of minute books, correspondence, financial records, newspaper clippings, and a scrapbook of records from the Kamloops Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society, and a minute book from the Red Cross Guild.
