Title: Kamloops Community Resources Society fonds

Dates of Creation: 1973-1981

Physical Description: 4 cm of textual records

Administrative History:

The Kamloops Community Resources Society was a non-profit society formed in 1973 in Kamloops, B.C. The goals of the society were to promote, plan, and develop a comprehensive network of community services in Kamloops, advise community agencies on the development of new community services and on the disbursement of government funds to support these services, and to receive and distribute funds to promote the goals of the society.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consists of records of the Kamloops Community Resources Society including meeting minutes, agendas, correspondence, reports, members list, and constitution. Fonds also includes a directory published by the society of community services in Kamloops, and a later corrected version of the directory.

Custodial History:

Accession 1986.032 was donated to the Kamloops Museum and Archives on February 20, 1986 by Lillian Tustin, the past president of the Kamloops Community Resources Society. Accession 0.3859 was donated on April 28, 1989, and is presumed to be donated by Lillian Tustin as well. All materials were previously placed in the Vertical Files collection, and were brought together during processing in 2019.
