Title: George C. Williams fonds

Dates of Creation: 1910-1965

Physical Description: 11 cm of textual records, 0.5 cm of b&w photographs, 8 maps, 2 objects, and 2 technical drawings

Biographical Sketch:

George C. Williams was a B.C. forester who resided in North Kamloops for 46 years. He was married to Rosa Williams, with whom he had two daughters (Rosemary or Mary Rose and Eva May). George C. Williams died in 1956.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consists of predominantly of George C. Williams' personal papers and materials from his activities as a forester, including identification cards, notebooks, reports, technical publications, campsite registrations, letters from his colleagues, maps, and souvenirs. Fonds also contains a crest for the North Kamloops Volunteer Fire Department, a copy of the Daily Advertiser newspaper, a souvenir photo book of the Canadian Rocky Mountains, liquor permits (some issued to his daughter, Eva May Williams), a postcard of North Kamloops, a letter, and papers relating to the planning of the North Kamloops May Day Celebrations in 1929 and 1947.

Custodial History:

Collection was donated to the Kamloops Museum and Archives by Eva Williams (the daughter of George C. Williams) in July 1975 (1975.044), on May 24, 1977 (1977.034), and at unidentified times (0.2936, 0.2937, 0.3011, and 0.3064). Artifacts, photographs, and maps which were originally donated with accessions 1975.044 and 1977.034 were removed by former archivists and placed in the Artifact, Photograph, and Map Collections respectively. Maps and photographs (where able to be identified) were returned to this fonds during reprocessing in 2018 and 2019. Accessions 0.2936,
