MAKING SPACE FOR EVERY STORY

We are profoundly grateful to the Secwépemc Museum for their gift of knowledge sharing, guidance, contributions, and insights and to Tourism Kamloops for their generous funding and support.

A heartfelt thank you to the volunteers of the City of Kamloops Heritage Engagement Group for their dedication and commitment to this project.

And we extend our deepest gratitude to everyone else who contributed to bringing this walking tour to life, a true celebration of Kamloops' rich and diverse history. This walking tour is a collective achievement, and we hope it inspires our community.

WEYT-KP TKÉMLÚPS

The Kamloops Museum and Archives is located on Tkémlúps te Secwépemc territory within the ancestral unceded lands of Secwépemc Nation, Secwepemcúl'ecw.

We invite you to deepen your understanding of Indigenous cultures by visiting the Secwépemc Museum and Heritage Park across the river from the downtown core.

The Kamloops Museum and Archives is proud to present the Downtown Kamloops Heritage Walking Tour. This tour is a reflection of building relationships with our community and with those who aren't yet reflected in the cultural evidence, heritage, and history of our region. It is our goal to continue to grow and expand the sharing of community histories through community voice.

History by Everyone. History for Everyone.
